

- Revelation gets repetitive – a reminder that God’s Kingdom wins!
- John contrasts the destruction of the prostitute with the marriage celebration of the lamb!
- Don’t fall for the parody of the prostitute, when the marriage to the lamb is waiting for you!
- Part of Christianity is making sure we are worshipping the right king.
- The Word of God is the weapon which Jesus chooses to use!
- God’s Word is our spiritual weapon as well, but if we are not familiar with it, we will have a hard time utilizing it.
- When it comes to reading in Revelation, we need to be consistent. We cannot pick and choose which numbers are literal and which are symbolic.
- Whatever the thousand years refers to, the main point is that Jesus has the final word, period.
- Jesus is the King over everything, even death. His battle with the forces of evil is anticlimactic at best.

- The paradox of Christianity is that death on our part leads to everlasting life in God's Kingdom.
